- Undo front right spindle bolt. Remove and replace with R&G threaded bolt
- Torque to recommended torque setting
- Take either bobbin with the recess on the back and position over spindle bar
- Slide bar through the bobbin and wheel spindle (bobbin should cover nut)
- Bar should sit equal length each side
- Place other bobbin onto exposed end of bar
- Take the two washers and put one over each end of the bar
- Take the two nyloc nuts supplied and put one on each end of the bar
- Tighten the assembly - Do not overtighten – the nyloc nuts will hold it tight.

CONSUMER NOTICE

The catalogue description and any exhibition of samples are only broad indications of the Products and R&G may make design changes which do not diminish their performance or visual appeal and supplying them in such state shall conform to the order. The Buyer acknowledges no representation or warranty (other than as to title) has been given or will apply to the Products other than those in R&G's order or confirmation and the Buyer confirms it has chosen the Products as being of merchantable quality and suitable for its particular purposes.

Where R&G fits the Products or undertakes other services it shall exercise reasonable skill and care and rectify any fault free of charge unless the workmanship has been disturbed. The Buyer is responsible for ensuring that the warranty on the motorcycle is not affected by the fitting of the Products.

On return of any defective Products R&G shall at its option either supply a replacement or refund the purchase money but shall not be liable if the Products have been modified or used or maintained otherwise than in accordance with R&G's or manufacturer's instructions and good engineering practice or if the defect arises from accident or neglect.

Other than identified above and subject to R&G not limiting its liability for causing death and personal injury, it shall not be liable for indirect or consequential loss and otherwise its liability shall be limited to the amounts paid by the Buyer for the Products or the fitting or service concerned.

These terms do not affect the Buyer's statutory rights.
